

Armenian Social Welfare Association (AAAS)

□ Description

The Association Arménienne d'Aide Sociale (AAAS) is a non-profit organization founded in 1890, which was the first Armenian charity in France. The organization is actively involved in social assistance, development and support of the Armenian diaspora, as well as the implementation of projects in Armenia. AAAS manages several nursing homes, provides social assistance and participates in development projects in Armenia. In 2004, AAAS founded the French-Armenian Development Fund (FADF), which implements programs for the repatriation of Armenians from France and support for their integration in Armenia.
