□ Description

Mission AMAA works faithfully with communities in Armenia to create a strong educational, moral and spiritual foundation for people in their lives, inspiring them to become full members of society.

Vision AMAA is committed to promoting the Armenian national potential and empowering individuals who contribute to the development of the well-being of Armenia.

AMAA carries out its mission with an unconditional commitment to the following values: AMAA strives to ensure a high level of quality of work and services in all its initiatives. AMAA encourages employees to be innovative and creative, dedicated to work and effective performance, and maintain a work ethic. AMAA encourages employees to have open communication, teamwork, a sense of responsibility, cooperation with stakeholders and mutual understanding. All people, regardless of race, religion, ethnic origin, gender, educational level, socio-economic status, deserve unconditional positive regard. AMAA is committed to the highest ethical standards, such as morality, honesty, and impartiality.
